GUIDE FOR ABSENTEE BIDDERS

All bids must be received 6 business hours prior to the Auction Session. Your Absentee Bid Form should contain bids for one sale only; the sale name and sale number should appear at the top. Please place your bids as early as possible. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence.

Bidders MUST read through our Terms and Conditions before submitting bids. These terms contain important information regarding our guarantees, billing, shipping, and return policies.

ABSENTEE BIDS

If you are unable to attend the auction in person, and wish to place bids, you may give Ira & Larry Goldberg's bid department instructions to bid on your behalf. Our representatives will try to purchase the lot for the lowest price possible, and will not purchase the lot for more than you indicate. This service is free and confidential. Note: Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles offers this service as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale in person, and although we will make every effort, we will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

PLACING ABSENTEE BIDS

To place bids, please use the Absentee Bidder Form provided in this catalog Be sure to accurately put the lot number and the maximum price you are willing to pay on each lot. Always indicate a top limit or the amount which you would bid if you were attending the auction in person. This amount should not include the buyers commission noted in chapter 16 of the "Terms and Conditions of sale".

MAIL BIDS

When bidding by mail, you frequently purchase lots for less than your maximum bid On the floor of the auction, bidding will open at 5-10% above the second highest mail bid: We act on your behalf as the highest mail bidder. If the auctioneer recognizes no other bids from the floor, you will be awarded the lot at the opening bid. If bidding proceeds from the floor, the company, acting as your agent, bids in increments over the previous bid This process is continued until you are awarded the lot or you are outbid by the floor.

LIMIT BIDDERS

If you have a "limit" that you must stay within you must clearly notate this limit on your bid sheet. We will buy your lots as inexpensively as possible but will not exceed your "limit".

"OR BIDS"

Alternative bids should be indicated by using the word "OR" between the lot numbers. Then if your bid on an early lot is successful, we will not continue to bid on any other lots for you Or, if your early bids are unsuccessful, we will continue to execute bids for alternative lots until a bid is successful. Bids must always be placed in the same order as the lot numbers appear in the catalog.

TELEPHONE BIDS

Bids may be placed by telephone, but are accepted only at Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles discretion and at the risk of the telephone bidder. We will not be responsible for error or failure to notify the customer in a timely manner during the auction. The telephone bidder must notify the company at least 24 hours prior to auction all lots the bidder is interested in bidding on. The telephone bidder should have a preconceived idea of the top limit that he/she would like to bid prior to auction. In some instances, the representative of the company will request this information at the time of auction. This information assists us in the bidding process by giving us a range to stay active in the bidding We will not notify the auctioneer of your limit and will buy your lot at the lowest price possible.

INTERNET BIDDING

Internet bidding is available via GoldbergLive You must be registered with our firm to be able to participate in the internet bidding process You may view our online catalogues and bid live on our website. Instructions and details are available online. You must be pre-approved to bid via the web. Please note that network down time or internet speed may interfere with bidding. All internet bids are executed LIVE on the floor during auction. We cannot stop our auction due to technical difficulties. This service is free and confidential. Standard 15% premium. To log in or bid, please go to goldbergcoins.com. Click the Log in or Bid button at top left.

BUYER'S PREMIUM

The "top limit" you indicate on your bid form is for the hammer price only Please keep in mind that a buyer's premium will be added to the successful bid price of each lot you buy and is payable by you, together with the applicable sales tax and shipping charges which is applied to the total cost of your purchase (the total cost includes the buyer's premium).

SUCCESSFUL BIDS

Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Prices realized are posted on our website immediately following each session, and are subject to change until the completion of the sale.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

These Terms and Conditions of Sale set forth the terms of a public auction sale conducted in Los Angeles, California by Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc., a Nevada corporation, California Auction Bond No. 3S95453300 (hereinafter, the "Auctioneer" or "Goldberg"). The Terms and Conditions of sale, the glossary, if any, and all other contents of this catalog are subject to amendment by us by the posting of notices or by oral announcements made during the sale. By participating in any sale, you acknowledge that you are bound by these terms and conditions.

1 This catalog contains the description of property of multiple consignors (the "Consignors"), and may include consignments from Goldberg, its principals, and affiliated or related companies and their employees, officers, or principals. All persons seeking to bid, whether in person, through an agent or employee, or by telephone, facsimile or mail, must have a catalogue and register to bid at the auction, either by completing a registration card or by completing the bid sheet incorporated into the catalogue. The Purchaser acknowledges that an invoice describing a lot by number incorporates the catalogue by reference.

2 By submitting a bid, whether in person, by mail, by phone, by facsimile or through an employee or agent, the Bidder acknowledges (i) receipt of the catalogue, (ii) that the Bidder has read the Terms and Conditions of Sale and the descriptions for the lots on which they have bid, and (iii) that they agree to adhere to these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Acceptance of Bids: Anyone wishing to place bids on lots who will not be attending the live auction must submit their bid(s) at least six (6) business hours prior to the auction session. Bidder is responsible for verifying said bids were received by Goldberg.

3 Each Bidder's determination of it's bid should be based upon its own examination of the item(s), rather than the grade represented in this Catalogue or elsewhere. In any purchase or sale, the value of the item(s) is determined by the price. THE PURCHASER HEREBY ASSUMES ALL RISKS OF VALUATION CONCERNING ANY AND ALL PURCHASES. All Floor Bidders acknowledge that the Auctioneer can decline to accept bids from the a Floor Bidder who is known to have not, in fact, examined the lot prior to the sale.

4 All material shall be sold in separate lots to the highest Bidder as determined by Auctioneer. If any dispute arises during or immediately after the sale of a lot, Auctioneer shall have the right to rescind the lot offered and put the lot up for sale again. In all cases, Auctioneer's decision shall be final. For the protection of any Mail Bidder, no "unlimited" or "buy" bids will be accepted. Goldberg shall have the right in its sole and absolute discretion to reject any such bid received. When identical bids are received for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received as determined by the Auctioneer. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid; a Floor Bidder must bid higher than the highest mail bid to be awarded any lot.

5 Bids must be for an entire lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. No lot will be broken up unless the Auctioneer determines otherwise. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless Auctioneer directs otherwise.

6 All lots may carry a reserve. For purposes of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, a reserve means a confidential price below which the Auctioneer will not sell an item or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor or for the account of Goldberg.

7 The Auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the seller; a Bidder by mail, telephone or facsimile; or any other participant in the sale. The Auctioneer may also bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, by (i) accepting bids from floor agents on behalf of the Consignor, or any affiliated or related company of the Auctioneer or the Consignor; (ii) by placing successive or consecutive bids for any lot; or (iii) by placing bids in response to other Bidders.

8 Auctioneer reserves the right, at his sole discretion, (i) to accept or decline any bid, (ii) to accept or decline any challenge to any bid or bidding increment, (iii) to reduce any mail bid received, (iv) to open the bidding of a lot at any level deemed appropriate by the Auctioneer, and (v) to determine the prevailing bid. Bids will not be knowingly accepted from persons under eighteen (18) years of age without a parent's written consent containing an acknowledgment that the Terms and Conditions of Sale herein and indicating their agreement to be bound thereby on behalf of the Bidder.

9 It is unlawful and illegal for Bidders to collude, pool, or agree with another bidder to pay less than the fair value for a lot. Bidders in the sale acknowledge that the law provides for substantial penalties in the form of treble damages and attorneys' fees and costs for those who violate these provisions.

10 Goldberg reserves the right to withdraw any lot at any time, even after the hammer has fallen, until the Purchaser has taken physical possession of the lot. No Consignor who has registered to bid at the sale (or at any other time unless otherwise provided in the consignment agreement), or any Purchaser or prospective Bidder shall have a right to claim any damages, direct, consequential or otherwise, if a lot is withdrawn, even after the sale.

11 GOLDBERG IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ERRORS IN BIDDING. A Bidder should make certain to bid on the correct lot and that the bid is for an amount (plus the fifteen percent (15%) Buyer's Commission that he or she is willing and able to pay. Since other Bidders (by mail, facsimile or other electronic media and in person) will be present, and since a re-offering could damage the momentum of the sale, once the hammer has fallen and the Auctioneer has announced the winning Bidder, such Bidder is unconditionally bound to pay for the lot, even if the Bidder has made a mistake.

12 THIS IS NOT AN APPROVAL SALE. All lots sold to the highest Bidder as determined by Auctioneer are final. Floor Bidders are encouraged to carefully examine all lots which they are interested in purchasing because all sales of items viewed by Purchasers in advance of a sale, even if the sale is by mail, telephone or facsimile, and all lots bid upon by the Floor Bidders, together with all those presenting Goldberg with a resale cer tificate, out of state resale certificate, or similar evidence that they are acting as a dealer ARE FINAL AND SUCH ITEMS MAY NOT BE RETURNED. If the description of any lot in the catalogue is incorrect, the lot is returnable if returned within five (5) calendar days of receipt, and received by Goldberg no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after the sale date. No return or refund of any auction lot will be considered except by reason of lack of authenticity, unless otherwise provided in these Terms and Conditions of Sale. All lots are sold under the condition that any claims challenging grading, authenticity or methods of manufacture must be made in writing within five (5) calendar days of receipt of material. (Continued on next page)

All disputed lots must be returned intact as received in their original, sealed and unopened container. Late remittance or removal of any lot from its original container constitutes just cause for revocation of all return privileges for any reason.

13 All prospective Bidders who are allowed the opportunity to examine lots prior to the sale shall personally assume all responsibility for any damage they cause in so doing. Goldberg shall have sole discretion in determining the value of the damage caused, which shall be promptly paid by the prospective Bidder.

14 Title to any lot remains with Consignor, any secured party of the Consignor, or assignee of Consignor, as the case may be, until the lot is paid for in full by Purchaser. Goldberg reserves the right to require payment in full before delivering any lot to the successful Purchaser.

15 It is the Purchaser's responsibility and obligation to have the lots fully insured while in his or her possession. Purchaser assumes any and all RISK OF LOSS once the lot(s) is in Purchaser's possession.

16 BUYER'S COMMISSION OF FIFTEEN PERCENT (15%). will be added to all purchases made by all Purchasers, except Consignors, regardless of Purchaser's affiliation with any group or organization, and will be based upon the total amount of the final bid.

17 Pursuant to a separate agreement with Auctioneer, Consignors or their agents may be permitted to bid on their own lots in the sale and may receive a rebate commission in whole or in part if successful. Under some circumstances, Goldberg may agree with a Consignor (i) not to require the Consignor to pay for all or part of any items bid upon or re-purchased by the Consignor; (ii) when or where an advance has been made, to have the Consignor pay an agreed upon difference to Goldberg; or (iii) to allow an offset against other transactions with Consignor. Where the Consignor has re-purchased a lot and the lot is either returned to the Consignor or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in accordance with the Consignor's direction, or pursuant to contractual agreement, Goldberg reserves the right to so note in the prices realized or to omit a price from the price realized. Every Consignor who registers to bid in the sale, whether to "protect" a lot, or for any other purpose, agrees to all other Terms and Conditions of Sale per this agreement.

18 Lots must be paid for within 14 days of receipt of invoice or delivery. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, auction sales are strictly cash above $2,500.00 in U.S. Funds payable through a bank in the United States. Contact Goldberg for wiring instructions before sending a wire. Goldberg reserves the right to decline to release lots for which funds have not yet cleared. Credit card (Visa & Mastercard only) purchases will be accepted on totals not exceeding $7,500. On any cash transaction or series of transaction exceeding $10,000, Treasury Form 8300 may be filed.

19 Purchaser agrees to promptly pay, on demand, any sales tax, or any other tax, if required by law to be collected, postage, handling, and shipping insurance plus the fifteen percent (15%) Buyer's Commission and any other taxes required by law to be charged or collected, together with any interest or penalty that may be assessed.

20 Purchaser grants to Goldberg or its assigns the right to offset any sums due, or found to be due Purchaser by Goldberg, and to make such offset from any past, subsequent or future consignment, or items acquired by Purchaser in possession or control of Goldberg or from any sums due to Purchaser by Goldberg. Purchaser further grants Goldberg a purchase money security interest in such sums or items to the extent applicable, and agrees to execute such documents as may be reasonably necessary to grant Goldberg such security interest. Purchaser agrees that Goldberg and its assigns shall be a secured party with respect to items bought by Purchaser and in the possession of Goldberg, to the extent of the maximum indebtedness, plus all accrued expenses, until the indebtedness is paid.

21 By bidding in this sale, Purchaser personally and unconditionally guarantees payment. If the Purchaser is a corporation, the officers, directors, and principals of the corporation hereby agree to personally and unconditionally guarantee payment as part of the corporation's agreement to bid. The authorized representative of any corporate Purchaser who is present at the sale shall provide Goldberg or its agent, prior to the commencement of the bidding (or at the time of registration), with a statement signed by each principal, director and officer that they each personally and unconditionally guarantee any payment due Goldberg.

22 No bids will be accepted from Floor Bidders and Mail Bidders who have not previously established credit with Goldberg unless they first (i) furnish satisfactory credit references or (ii) deposit at least twenty-five percent (25%) of their total bids for that session(s), or such other amounts as Goldberg may require, in its sole and absolute discretion. Any deposits made pursuant to this paragraph will be applied to such Bidders purchases. Any unused portion of such deposit will be promptly refunded upon clearance of the funds.

23 On any accounts past due. Goldberg reserves the right to extend credit and impose periodic charges, pursuant to these Terms and Conditions of Sale or as set forth in the Purchaser's invoice. If the auction invoice is not paid in full when due, the unpaid balance will earn interest at the rate of one-and-one-half percent (1 1/2%) per month until paid. In the event this interest rate exceeds the interest permitted by law, the same shall be adjusted to the maximum rate permitted by law. Goldberg further reserves the right to resell the merchandise, or to have an affiliated or related company do so. Purchaser agrees to pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and other collection costs incurred by Goldberg or any affiliated or related company to collect past due invoices, including reasonable costs of any resale of the merchandise. Purchaser also agrees to pay the difference between the resale price and any previous disbursements. Money realized from the resale shall be applied as follows: (i) to pay sums due to the consignor, (ii) to pay Goldberg standard commissions and fees for the resale, (iii) to pay Goldberg any sums owed to it by purchaser, and the remainder, if any, will be paid to the Purchaser. Goldberg reserves the right to assign its interest to any third party.

24 Goldberg may at its sole and absolute discretion, make loans or advances to Consignors and/or prospective Purchasers.

25 The Auctioneer may bid for his or its own account at any auction (even though it may not be required to pay a Buyer's Commission, or other charges that other Purchasers may be required to pay) and may have access to information concerning the lots and items contained therein that is not otherwise available to the public. Any conflict of interest or claim of competitive advantage resulting therefrom is expressly waived by all participants in the sale.

26 If a dispute arises concerning ownership of a lot that has been bid upon, Goldberg reserves the right to commence a statutory interpleader proceeding at the expense of the Consignor and successful Purchaser and any other applicable party, and in such event Goldbergs shall be entitled to its reasonable attorney's fees and costs. (Continued on next page)

27 In the event of a successful challenge to the title to any goods purchased, Goldberg agrees to reimburse any Purchaser in an amount equal to the successful bid price actually paid by Purchaser at auction plus any Buyer's Commission actually paid, in full and complete satisfaction of all claims, such reimbursement once tendered by Goldberg, relieves and releases Goldberg from any responsibility whatsoever to the Purchaser, even if the instrument is not cashed or is returned.

28 Goldberg reserves the right to post-pone the auction sale or any session thereof for a reasonable period of time for any reason whatsoever, and no Bidder or prospective Bidder shall have any claim as a result thereof, including consequential damages.

DISCLAIMERS AND WARRANTIES

ALL ITEMS OFFERED IN THIS CATALOGUE ARE GUARANTEED TO BE GENUINE. THIS IS A LIMITED WARRANTY THAT THE ITEM SOLD IS NOT COUNTERFEIT, THAT ITS DATE OR MINTMARK HAS NOT BEEN ALTERED AND THAT THE COIN HAS NOT BEEN "REPAIRED."

29 Any other warranty is expressly disclaimed; Goldberg offers no representation that a numismatic item has or has not been cleaned; that any toning is natural or artificial; that any coin will meet the standards or grade of any independent grading service; that any item has a particular provenance or pedigree, or that a numismatic item is struck or produced in a particular style. Any statement concerning such matters reflects an opinion only. Questions regarding the minting of a coin as a proof or as a business strike relate to the method of manufacture and not to authenticity.

a. The descriptions contained herein represent the Cataloger's good faith opinion, or the opinion of an independent grading service, as to the state of preservation and strike. When a grade from an independent grading service is utilized, the information is provided strictly for the convenience of the bidder by mail, telephone or facsimile. Bidders and Purchasers acknowledge that (i) grading is an art, not a science; (ii) the grades contained in the catalogue represent the opinion of the Auctioneer based upon its experience; (iii) it is possible that two people will not always grade the same items alike; and (iv) as market conditions change, grading standards change, and will most likely continue to do so in the future. NO WARRANTY, WHETHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, IS MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY GRADE DESCRIPTION, WHICH IS MERELY AN OPINION THAT IS LIKELY TO DIFFER, EVEN AMONG EXPERTS. PURCHASER HEREBY ASSUMES ALL RISKS CONCERNING AND RELATED TO THE GRADING OF A LOT BY AN INDEPENDENT GRADING SERVICE.

b. Grading or condition of rare coins may have a material effect on the value of the item(s) purchased; and the opinion of third parties (including independent grading services) may differ from the independent grading service's opinion or interpretation of Goldberg. Goldberg shall not be bound by any prior or subsequent opinion, determination or certification by any independent grading service.

c. All oral and written statements made by Goldberg and its employees (including affiliated and related companies) are statements of opinion only, and are not warranties or representations of any kind, unless stated as a specific written warranty, and no employee or agent of Goldberg has authority to vary or alter these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Any alteration shall be effective only if in writing and signed by an officer of Goldberg authorized to do so.

d. Bidders shall have no recourse against the Consignor for any reason whatsoever.

e. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms and Conditions of Sale, COINS LISTED IN ANY CATALOGUE GRADED BY PCGS, NGC, ICG, SEGS, ACCUGRADE, PCI, NTC OR ANACS CACHET MAY NOT BE RETURNED FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER. Please note that lack of a CAC seal does not necessarily mean that a coin was rejected. Not all coins were submitted for examination.

30 By bidding in the sale, (whether in person, by mail, telephone or facsimile, or through an agent), Bidder expressly consents to the following

WAIVER AND RELEASES

Purchaser, for himself, his heirs, agents, successors and assigns, generally and specifically waives and releases, and forever discharges Goldberg, and its respective affiliates, parents, shareholders, agents, subsidiaries, employees, members of their respective boards of directors, and each of them, and their respective successors and assigns from any and all claims, rights, demands and causes of action and suites, of whatever kind or nature, whether in law or equity, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which Purchaser may claim to have with respect to and/or arising out of, or in connection with any challenge to the title to any good purchased, the sale itself and/or the auction, except for reimbursement in the amount equal to any bid actually paid by Purchaser, plus any Buyer's Commission actually paid by Purchaser where such reimbursement is authorized in these Terms and Conditions of Sale. It is the intention of Purchaser that this waiver and release shall be effective as a bar to each and every claim, demand, cause of action and suit that may arise hereunder, and Purchaser hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives any and all rights and benefits otherwise conferred upon him by the provisions of the California Civil Code, which reads in full as follows:

"A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR." (continued)

31 Neither Goldberg nor any affiliated or related company shall be responsible for incidental or consequential damages arising out of any failure of the Terms and Conditions of Sale of the auction or the conduct thereof and in no event shall liability for any such failure exceed the purchase price paid.

32 The sole remedy that any Purchaser in the auction shall have, whether such Purchase is bidding in person, by mail, by facsimile, by telephone, or through an employee or agent, for any claim or controversy arising out of the auction shall be a refund of the original purchase price and premium paid, if any.

33 Upon payment of any disputed sum, which in no event shall be greater than the original purchase price actually paid by Purchaser plus any commission or premium actually paid by Purchaser to Goldberg, Auctioneer and its employees shall be deemed released from any and all claims of the Bidder arising out of or in connection with the sale of such property. Purchaser agrees to execute prior to delivery of any refund, any documents reasonably requested to effect the intent of this paragraph. Should the Purchaser decline to do so, Purchaser hereby grants to Goldberg a limited power of attorney to unconditionally effect such release. (Continued on next page.)

34 Rights granted to Bidders and Purchasers under these Terms and Conditions of Sale are personal and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person or entity, whether by operation of law or otherwise. Any attempt to assign or transfer any such rights shall be absolutely void and unenforceable. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred on any Bidder or Purchaser by these Terms and Conditions of Sale and terms of warranty. "Purchaser" shall mean the original Purchaser of the property from Goldberg and not any subsequent owner or other person who may acquire or have acquired an interest therein. If Purchaser is an agent, the agency must be disclosed in writing to Goldberg prior to the time of sale, otherwise the benefits of the warranty shall be limited to the agent and not transferable to the undisclosed principal.

35 If the Purchaser fails to comply with one or more of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, then in addition to all other remedies which it may have at law or in equity, Goldberg may at its sole option, either (a) cancel the sale, retaining all payments made by Purchaser as liquidated damages, it being recognized that actual damages may be speculative or difficult to compute, or (b) sell some or all of the property and (some or all other property of the Purchaser held by Goldberg, if Goldberg deems necessary), in a quantity sufficient in the opinion of Goldberg to satisfy the indebtedness, plus all accrued charges. More than one such sale may take place at the option of Goldberg. Such sale may take place without notice to Purchaser. If Goldberg gives notice, it shall be by U.S.P.S. Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested to the address utilized on the Bid Sheet, Auction Consignment and Security Agreement or other address known to Goldberg. Such sale will be at Goldberg standard commission rates at public or private sale, within California, or at another location outside of California to be determined by Goldberg. At the time of sale the defaulting party shall not bid nor be permitted to bid. The proceeds shall be applied first to the satisfaction of any damages occasioned by Purchaser's breach, and then to the payment of any other indebtedness owing to Goldberg, including without limitation, commissions, handling charges, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, collection agency fees and costs and any other costs or expenses incurred thereunder. If a lot or item is not paid for, and is sold by Goldberg for Purchaser's account, in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code, Goldberg shall not be required to account to the Purchaser for any excess proceeds. Purchaser shall remain liable to Goldberg if the proceeds of such sale or sales is insufficient to cover the indebtedness. If other property of Purchaser is also sold, any excess of proceeds will be remitted to the Purchaser after first deducting the expenses set forth above. If Purchaser fails to remit sums due to Goldberg, Purchaser grants to Goldberg a lien with respect to such sum, with interest to accrue thereon at the legal rate, until actually paid, which lien shall apply against any property of Purchaser, including any future goods of Purchaser coming into possession of Goldberg. To the extent permitted by law, Purchaser hereby waives all the requirements of notice, advertisement and disposition of proceeds required by law.

36 These Terms and Conditions of Sale and the auction shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of California, whether or not the auction is and these Terms and Conditions of Sale are fully performed in California.

37 Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the competent courts of the State of California shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute(s) arising hereunder, and Purchaser hereby agrees that any dispute arising hereunder shall be litigated exclusively in the courts of the State of California, and not elsewhere, regardless of any party's current or future residence or domicile. Purchaser further agrees that venue shall be in the Superior Court of Los Angeles, in the State of California.

38 ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS
The Bidder/Purchaser shall pay to Goldberg all costs and expenses of collection of amounts due herein, or to otherwise enforce any or all provisions of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, the subject matter of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, or any other agreement entered into with Goldberg, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred before legal action, if any, is commenced. The Bidder/Purchaser further agrees that in any litigation or other proceeding based upon, arising out of or related to these Terms and Conditions of Sale, the Bidder/Purchaser shall pay to Goldberg its attorney fees and other expenses and costs incurred in connection with the litigation or other proceeding if Goldberg is the prevailing party.

39 If any section of these Terms and Conditions of Sale or any term or provision of any section is held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining sections or terms and provisions of a section shall continue in full force and effect without being impaired or invalidated in any way. AS STATED IN THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE Certain lots may be reserved by the Consignor. If the Auctioneer identifies a Consignor bidding on his own property, an announcement will be made that the Consignor is now bidding If the Consignor places a bid in the mail bid book and is successful, the Auctioneer will announce that the lot has been passed.

40 These Terms and Conditions contain the entire agreement and understanding between Goldberg and Bidder concerning the auction and any items bid on or purchased at the auction. VICTOR JARAMILLO

Victor was born in 1957 in Trujillo, Peru. His father Cesar, a retired medical doctor whose passion was the outdoors, showed his son the beauty and mystery of the Peruvian coastal and mountain areas. By doing so, Victor learned to appreciate and admire both the ancestral cultures of Peru and the history of the colonial period (1532 to 1824).

During 1963 to 1965 Victor lived in Madison, Wisconsin; where his father was doing medical research. Later, in 1972 his family moved to Pasadena, California, and in 1974 the family returned to Peru.

In 1981 Victor graduated with a B.Sc. in geology from Washington and Lee University in Virginia, and continued to McGill University in Canada where he graduated in 1983 with a Master's Degree in mineral exploration.

By then Victor had a strong passion for the colonial history of his native Peru, and in 1984 started what would become his hobby as a coin collector, particularly after inheriting a few old coins from his grandfather.

Victor worked in Peru as a geologist from 1983 to 1987, but because of the constant fear of terrorism and a few incidents that threatened his life, he started working in Chile and in early 1988 he moved to Vancouver, Canada where he currently resides.

He met the love of his life, Ramona, in Mexico and married in late 2004. They have a 4 year old daughter named Victoria. Victor also has a 21 year old daughter Michelle and an 18 year old son Victor III.

During his 30 years working as a geologist he traveled to several countries most of the time into remote areas. A few times confronted hostile situations and worked with armed bodyguards.

In his travels through the Peruvian Andes he searched in Indian markets or antiquities shops for rare cobs or coins. In one occasion, he bought in Cuzco, Peru a 4 Real heart shaped silver cob dated 1671. To his disappointment it turned out to be a fake piece. Several years later, due to financial hardship Victor had to sell several of his coins, a very sad time. A few years later, he started purchasing coins mainly from Heritage, Stacks, the Goldberg's, Dan Sedwick, Claudia Karon and more recently from Aureo & Calico, Marti Hervera, Cayon, and Ibercoin all from Spain.

As happens to a good number of coin collectors, Victor encountered a few fake coins mainly sold from large online auction companies, but his most difficult time was when shipping 20 rare high grade 8 real pillars for grading, he had just purchased from Aureo Calico in Spain, that were later declared lost by Canada Post.
"Collecting mostly 8 Reales silver cobs and coins from the Lima Mint has been my passion and a most rewarding and enjoyable experience. It provided an unbiased historical perspective of facts, at times a bit challenging to historians" as Victor indicates.

Victor is a member of ANA and NGC. In 2011 his 8 Real Collection ranked in 1st place at NGC Registry Awards, for the Peru 8 Reales Type Set (1751-1824), the Ferdinand VI, 8 Reales,1751-1760 type set, the Charles III, Pillar type set, the 8 Reales (1760-1772) set and the Ferdinan VII, 8 Reales, 1808-1824 type set.

During 2012, Victor continues leading in the above type sets. The last addition to his collection was a 1771 8 Real Pillar with the spelling error "HIAPSN", instead of "HISPAN". One of only 3 or 4 known to exist, and the only one, graded at NGC XF-45. Below the "S" and "A" is clearly visible. A first error was the engraving of the letter "A" after the "I" which read "HIAPAN". In an attempt to rectify this error an "S" above the "A" was punched. It is reported that as such, the dies were immediately destroyed. This explains the extreme rarity of this coin.

Victor is president & CEO of Discover Geological Consultants Inc., a private company that provides geological services to the international mining industry and is based in Vancouver, Canada. He currently provides consulting work to a uranium producing mining company based in the US, and to a gold company in Brazil.

"I am very happy to have consigned my Peru collection to Larry and Ira Goldberg Coins and Collectibles, as I appreciate the way they have handled my coins, as it were theirs." Victor wrote.

Celtic. Burgenland, Northern Pannonia. Silver Tetradrachm

Enlargement

4272 Celtic. Burgenland, Northern Pannonia. Silver Tetradrachm (12.4g) struck 2nd century BC. Kroisbach with Reiterstumpf type. Diademed, beardless male bust right, with "boxer's nose," heavy jaw and ornament in hair below ear. Reverse: Rider, composed of a torso and head, mantle fluttering in hooked line behind, on a heavy horse prancing left, torque as groundline below. Göbl OTA pl. 38 469/5; Lanz 744. Well struck, nice and crisp throughout. Superb Extremely Fine.
Estimated Value ..... $2,000 - 2,500

4273 Celtic. Eastern Europe. Imitating Thasos types. Silver Tetradrachm (15.24g) ca. 148-80 BC. Wreathed head of Dionysos right in partially low relief on beveled field, two near-parallel lines for mouth. Reverse: Herakles standing facing, head left, holding club formed of pellets, lion's skin depicted as line with pellet at end, detailed amphora in far right field, corrupted legend, but passable Greek letters; "Δ HMH" below. Göbl--, Kostial--, Pink--. Interesting, Rare and unusual type. Pale russet highlights. Extremely Fine.

4274 Celtic. Eastern Europe. Imitating type of Thracе, Thasos. Silver Tetradrachm (16.7g) ca. 148-90/80 BC.. Vulgarized wreathed head of Dionysos right. Reverse: Herakles - two pellets for pectorals, one for groin, three for his right hand -- standing three-quarters left, head left, holding draped lion's skin and club; before, M monogram. OTA Class II, 4; Lanz 964; Allen-CCCBM I, 220. Obverse pinscratches. Russet highlights. Choice Very Fine.
Estimated Value ..... $300 - 350

Celtic. Jersey - Armorica. AR Stater ca. 80-50 BC

Although this type has traditionally been attributed to the Abrincatui (neighbors of the Coriosolites), there has been little evidence to support this. These coins are found on the Channel island of Jersey and in the area around St. Malo. Most likely they were minted in the environs of St. Malo and found their way to Jersey, a primary stopping place for ships on the trade route to Hengistbury (Dorset), England.
Estimated Value ..... $2,000 - 2,500

4276 Celtic Coinage. Danube Region. Imitating Philip II of Macedon. Circa 2nd Century BC. AR Tetradrachm (14.9 g). Chinless Type. Diademed head of Zeus right, chinless. Reverse: Rider on horseback right. OTA 244/5. Kostial 554. Light grey toning. Excellent metal and exceptional for this issue. Nearly Extremely Fine.
Estimated Value ..... $1,000 - 1,300

Splendid Early Eastern Celtic Silver Tetradrachm

4277 Celtic Coinage. Central Europe & Asia Minor. Scordisci. Silver Tetradrachm (12.64g) struck in Syrmia, ca. 3rd century BC. Duchcitter type. Laureate head right of Zeus; dotted border. Reverse: Crested head and torso left of rider on prancing horse with dotted mane; to right, anemone; below, circled pellet; dotted border. Kostial 453; Dembski --. A splendid example of this rare type. Uniform antique grey toning. Small scrape at reverse edge between forelegs of horse. Nearly Extremely Fine.
Estimated Value ..... $2,500 - 3,000

The didrachms of Tarentum exhibit a bewildering number of variations on the basic theme of horseman / Taras astride dolphin. This early third century example shows a standing figure of Nike receiving a victorious horseman, a revival of an earlier type (Evans period IV), while the reverse has the novel innovation of Taras rising to his full height with one knee on the dolphin's back.

The Hunter Collection.

4281 Calabria, Tarentum, ca. 281-272 BC. Silver Didrachm (6.5g). Youth on horseback right crowning himself, "ZALO" and Ionic capital below. Reverse: Taras, holding a distaff and akrostolion, riding dolphin left. Vlasto 803ff, SNG ANS 1142ff. Extremely Fine.

The Hunter Collection.

4282 Calabria. Tarentum/Taras, 272-235 BC. AR Didrachm (or Nomos; 6.39 g). Evans Period VIII. Jockey raising r. hand crowning horse with palm-branch; behind Φ1. Reverse: Dolphin rider to left, holding cornucopiae and trident, to right bee. SNG ANS Part I 1183; Vlasto 855-6. Lightly toned and lustrous. Extremely Fine.

4283 Lucania, Metapontum / Metapontion. Silver Stater (7.8g) struck ca. 340-330 BC. Head of bearded Leukippos right wearing a Corinthian helmet; dog seated left behind, raising his forepaw. Reverse: META. Seven-grain barley ear with leaf to right; bird with open wings atop leaf; AMI below. SNG ANS 443, HN Italy 1576. Bold profile of Leukippos. Light antique toning. Choice Very Fine.

The handsome bearded head adorning the obverse of this fourth century Metapontine stater is that of Leukippos. Following its destruction by the Samnites, Metapontion was recolonized from Sybaris early in the seventh century BC by settlers under the leadership of Leukippos, who was afterwards revered as the city's founder.

The Hunter Collection.

Estimated Value ..... $500 - 600

Ex Wolfen Family Foundation, purchased from Bank Leu early 1970s.

Ex Nelson Bunker Hunt Collection - Thourioi Silver Stater signed by Phrygillos ca. 420-410 BC

The artist "Φ" here may be the master engraver Phrygillos, who is believed to have worked at Thourioi. Phrygillos is known for his signed dies at Syrakuse, and his work has also been identified at Terina. The bird below the bull on the reverse of this coin could then be considered a pun on his name, for phrygillos is Greek for "finch."

Estimated Value ..... $15,000 - 18,000

Ex Leu 81, 16 May 2001, lot 26; Nelson Bunker Hunt Collection II (Sotheby's) 21 June 1990, lot 204; Numismatic Fine Arts X, Sept. 17, 1981, lot 19; Bank Leu 25, 23 April 1980, lot 38.

Choice Quality Silver Distater of Thourioi

Enlargement

4286 Lucania, Thourioi. Silver Distater (15.42g) struck ca. 350-300 BC. Head of Athena right wearing crested Attic helmet adorned with Skylla throwing a stone. Reverse: Bull butting right; two fish swimming right in exergue. Noe J16 (same dies); HN Italy 1823; SNG Cop 1430. Attractive soft tone. Well struck and well centered, a crisp example. Extremely Fine.

Estimated Value ..... $7,000 - 8,000

Beautiful Velia Silver Drachm ca. 440-400 BC

Estimated Value ..... $1,500 - 2,000

4288 Bruttium, Croton / Kroton. Silver Stater (8.02g) ca. 480-430 BC. Handsome Messana Silver Tetradrachm, c. a. 425-421 BC

4290 Sicily, Messana. Silver Tetradrachm (17.1g) struck ca. 425-421 BC. Slow mule-biga right, charioteer holding reins and kentron; in exergue, olive berry and leaf. Reverse: MEΣ - Σ - A - N - IO - N. Hare springing right; below, fly right. Caltabiano 479 (D196 R190); SNG ANS 375 (same dies). Lightly toned with sharp relief. Choice Very Fine.

Of particular interest to entomologists, this late fifth century BC tetradrachm of Messana features a prominent representation of a fly as its symbol beneath the bounding hare. Another variety depicts a locust. The mule-car probably derives from the victory in that event of Anaxilas, tyrant of Rhegium and Messana, in the Olympian games of 484 or 480 BC. Messana originally bore the name of Zancle (Sickle) from the shape of its harbor but this was changed about 488 BC when Anaxilas installed there a large body of Messanian immigrants from the Peloponnese.

Estimated Value ..... $3,000 - 4,000

Impressive Naxos Silver Tetradrachm ca. 430-420 BC

One of the most sought after and famous of ancient Greek coins, this coin is known only from one obverse die and five reverse dies. A short-lived issue, it was likely produced for a specific purpose. During this time Naxos, the oldest of the Greek colonies in Sicily, actively supported Athens, notably with the Sicilian expedition of 427 BC. This coin thus may have been struck in connection with these events.

Showing a final transition from the earlier Aitna Master Tetradrachms which still exhibited the rigidity of design typical of the archaic, this coin shows true classical style. Dionysos'features are very natural; his hair tousled, his eye correct, the conventional archaic smile gone - replaced by relaxed lips, and his diadem less formalized. The reverse, which alludes to the source of Naxos'prosperity and power: wine production, depicts a very lifelike Silenos. Heeding far more closely the traditional description of the wisest, oldest and most drunken of Dionysos'Silenoi, half-man, half-goat followers, the engraver presents a somewhat dishevelled Silenos with a round and balding head, curving, flowing beard, and some paunch.

On the Mediterranean, the city of Marathos (Amrit) lay under the dominion of Arados (Arwad). Both surrendered in ca. 332 BC to Alexander the Great, whose gold staters this type most clearly copies. Traditionally assigned to the beginning of Marathos coinage, until fairly recently, the type was known only from two coins, the de Luynes specimen in Paris and the Houghton. The discovery of some Marathos drachms with a group of coins of Seleukos II has brought the known number up to a handful or so, while it has brought the likely issuance date down to ca. 230-225 BC.

This new evidence is helpful, but the issue still remains much an enigma. There is an extremely rare tetradrachm, bearing the ethnic, from this period; and it may be that these drachms figured in as an auxiliary fractional coinage. In ca. 219 BC, Marathos gained its independence from Arados. Perhaps then these coins are connected to events which would lead to this outcome. The issuance of a high-value silver coin would indicate that Marathos had achieved a great measure of autonomy. But Marathos did not stay long from the shadow of Arados. In 148 BC, Arados sacked the city, and Marathos was abandoned afterwards.

P. Kinns, "The Amphictionic Coinage Reconsidered," NC 1983, pl. I, 7-8 (O1/R5). Struck in high relief. Extremely Rare. Extremely Fine.

The great Temple of Delphi was destroyed in 373 BC by an earthquake (apparently the same seismic activity, followed by a tsunami, which wiped the Achaean city of Helike from both the map and history). Charged with the support and care of the Temple of Delphi and the Temple of Demeter (at Anthela), the members of the Amphiktyonic League responded immediately. The efforts to rebuild the temple, though, were often stalled. One of the greatest obstacles was brought on by a quarrel between two league members, Phokis and Thebes.

In 362 BC, Phokis turned down Thebes'request to send troops for the Mantinea campaign. Five years later, Thebes saw its chance to punish Phokis. Athens was entangled in the Social War and the Phokian ally Alexander of Pherai was dead. In 357 BC, Thebes, which now dominated the Amphiktyonic League, brought Phokis before the member states and levied a charge of sacrilege for the illegal cultivation of sacred land in Kirra. An unjustifiably high fine was imposed on Phokis. Raising a mercenary army with funds provided by Sparta, which had also been harshly fined by the League, the Phokians occupied Delphi; then defeated a Lokrian expedition sent against them. The League's council members declared a Sacred War. In 346 BC, Phokis was defeated and expelled from the Amphiktyonic League, and its two votes were given to Philip II and Macedon, who had helped in their defeat. Work resumed at Delphi. In 338/36 BC, the League opted to melt down the temple treasury silver and mint a new series of coinage to finance reconstruction. Staters, drachms and hemidrachms were struck, and their types were indicative of the two temples under the League's protective mantle. The rebuilt Temple of Delphi was finished in 330/29 BC.

The island of Aegina was probably the first state in European Greece to issue coined money (mid-sixth century BC). The Aeginetans were famed for their seamanship and were a considerable naval power in the Aegean area. Their didrachm-stater of about 12.6 grams became the accepted standard for numerous mints in the Cyclades, in Crete and in Asia Minor, as well as in Greece itself. In 445 BC, the Thirty Years Peace guaranteed Aegina's autonomy, and a new variant of the Aeginetan coinage was introduced. This depicted the turtle (now usually described as a tortoise) with a segmented carapace in place of the smooth shell of the archaic period. However, with the outbreak of Peloponnesian War in 431 BC, the Aeginetans were expelled from their homes and the island was occupied by Athenian cleruchs, a situation that prevailed until the Athenian defeat in 404 BC.

Extremely Rare 'Winged Dog' Electrum Stater of Kyzikos, ca. 500-450 BC

4358 Mysia, Kyzikos. Electrum Stater (16.0g) struck ca. 500-450 BC. Winged dog seated left, its head reverted; below, tunny fish left. Reverse: Quadripartite incuse square. V. Fritze 104; Boston MFA 1433. The winged dog very well centered for the type. Toned. Extremely Rare and the best of the handful of known examples. Choice Very Fine.

Thanks to her strategic position at the entrance to the Black Sea, Kyzikos knew great prosperity, a wealth reflected in its extensive series of electrum staters produced from 550 to 350 BC depicting a rich array of types, many mythological. During this period, it was not uncommon for the Kyzikene celators to add wings to non-alate animals that would be depicted on the coinage. This practice is also seen on the coins of Mytilene and Phokaia. Today we are presented with a curious menagerie: winged boars and lions, less frequently winged stags and winged bulls. Most unusual, though, is the winged dog portrayed here and possibly unique to Kyzikos.

Counter-balancing this singular creature, is the tunny, the symbol of the city and a unifying common theme throughout its electrum coinage. Shoals of these large, fatty and nutrition-rich fish constantly passed through the Propontis on their way from the Euxine to the Aegean Sea. An essential part of the Kyzikene economy, tunny was also one of the most important foods in the ancient Mediterranean diet and its use as a symbol on the far-travelled Kyzikene coinage would clearly have had great propaganda value.

The Striated Electrum Stater - The Origin of Coinage

Enlargement

4367 Ionia, Miletos. Electrum Stater (14.23g) struck ca. 660 BC. The Striation Type. Milesian standard (17.5mm). Field of striated lines. Reverse: Long slim, shallow rectangular central punch, flanked by two square shallow punches, all with uneven raised surfaces. Joseph Linzalone, Electrum and the Invention of Coinage (2011), 1014 (this coin); BMC 1. Considered the first true coin. Extremely Rare and one of only seven known of this type. About Extremely Fine.

According to Herodotus, the Lydians were the first people to use electrum coinage. And up and to present day, literary tradition has deemed Lydia the birthplace of coinage. Although there is not much evidence to point specifically to Lydia, Asia Minor is most certainly the fount of the first coinage. A mixture of gold and silver known to the Greeks as elektron occurred as a natural ore found in nugget form in its riverbeds. These nuggets were weighed and used as a form of exchange and from them evolved the earliest coinage. It would only be natural then for the earliest coins, which would bear no design, to be globular and nugget-like in shape. The intrinsic value of early electrum was quite high, and these early coins must then have been used for the transfer of large sums, whether mercantile or governmental, or as donatives.

As a guaranty of a fixed value, punches were added to these electrum units. For scholars and numismatists, this is the determinant that ennobles these pieces as the first true coins. (In China, bronze cowrie shells dating back to 900 BC or earlier have been found in burial sites; copies of organic cowrie shells which were used as units of exchange. But these bronze cowries bear no mark of value.)

The process of adding the punches was facilitated by roughing up the surfaces, resulting in coins with rough, irregular or striated surfaces. These coins would be based on the Milesian standard of circa 14 grams which was employed in parts of Ionia and in Lydia. As a phase of the evolution of coinage, this time would be very brief. From Ionia, or Lydia, electrum coinage spread to the coastal cities of Asia Minor, to the Greek islands and then to the mainland.

The Striation Type is the first type of coin to introduce the innovation of an obverse image. According to Linzalone, the simple design was perhaps inspired by ripples on the surface of water, ripples that market the source of precious Electrum.

As the largest denomination of the first successful type coin, the extremely rare staters of the striated series are of singular importance as the premier example of the first true coin.

The portraits on the later Lycian staters are perhaps the finest numismatic examples of the Classical period. And they came to be so in a natural and logical progression. Lycia was one of the first coin issuers to depict its rulers. Early issues utilized an idealized portraiture, while over the next half a century, Lycian celators moved toward realism. This trend would reach its pinnacle during the reign of Perikle, while simultaneously imbuing touches of idealism. Here the portrait is placed on the obverse, while instead of using the traditional profile, the artist uses a dramatic facing portrait clearly borrowing from Syracusan coinage. The sum depiction of the dynast is very realistic, here is Perikle the man. The arrangement of his hair, free flowing in a somewhat celestial nimbus, though, hints at a demigod. Useful propaganda for a dynast!

Enamored of the fair Europa, Greek mythology tells us that Zeus decided to seduce her. Casting himself as tame white bull, he mixed into her father's herds. While gathering flowers with her attendants, Europa saw the bull, caressed its flanks, and soon got onto its back. Zeus led them to the sea and swam across to Crete, where he revealed his true identity to Europa, who became the first queen of Crete. Zeus gave Europa a necklace made by Hephaestus and three more gifts: Talos, the bronze giant (depicted on the coinage of Phaistos in Crete, see our lot 4072 in The Hunter Collection); Laelaps, the dog that never failed to catch its prey; and a javelin that never missed. Later, Zeus recreated the white bull in the heavens, which became the constellation Taurus. The Romans adopted the tale of the Raptus, "Abduction of Europa," substituting Jupiter for Zeus.

Very Rare Labienus, Imperator Parthicus. AR Denarius, minted c. 40 BC

Enlargement

4402 Labienus, Imperator Parthicus. Silver Denarius (3.7g) minted in Asia Minor (likely at Antioch), 40 BC. Very rare. Since he was a traitor to Rome, Labienus'coinage was melted down with only a handful surviving. Q LABIENVS PARTHICVS IMP. Bare head of Labienus facing right. Reverse: Saddled horse standing right. Cr.524/2; Syd.1357; RSC 2. Trivial banker's mark on cheek. Some old test digs and hairlines on the reverse. Clear and well-centered types with lovely antique grey toning. Overall, A decent example of this important and historical coin. Very rare. About Very Fine.

This very rare issue was produced early in 40 BC in Syria or southeastern Asia Minor in the name of the imperator Quintus Labienus, son of the Pompeian general Titus Labienus who had fallen in battle against Julius Caesar in 45 BC. In the winter of 43 42 BC Quintus had been sent by the tyrannicide Cassius to the court of Orodes II to gain the active support of the Parthians in the struggle of the Republican faction against the triumviral government in Rome. The defeat of the Republican leaders Brutus and Cassius at Philippi in October 42 BC left Labienus stranded in Parthia without a cause. Feeling he had nothing more to lose, he persuaded Pacorus, son of Orodes, to join him in a military adventure. They invaded Syria where they overcame the Roman governor Decidius Saxa whose legions deserted to the rebel cause. Realizing the seriousness of the situation, Mark Antony, who had been dallying with Cleopatra in Alexandria, dispatched his trusted general Ventidius to deal with the crisis, which had now spread into Asia Minor. Ventidius quickly achieved the victory over Labienus and had him put to death, and Pacorus suffered the same fate the following year.

The coinage of Labienus comprises gold aurei and silver denarii. It was probably all struck on a single occasion, perhaps for the purpose of a donative to the legions of Saxa.

Portrait Denarius of Julius Caesar, minted at Rome, ca. 44 BC

Enlargement

4405 Julius Caesar, d. 44 BC. Silver Denarius (4.1g) minted at Rome, April 44 BC by moneyer C. Cossutius Maridianus.. Laureate, veiled head of Caesar right; apex behind; lituus before. Reverse: Moneyer's name in cruciform: AAA FF in angles. Craw 480/19; Syd 1069; RSC 8; Alföldi type XVII, 8. As usual, struck slightly off-center yet with a full portrait. Choice Very Fine.

This portrait denarius of Caesar was issued by the moneyer C. Cossutius Maridianus in the month following the assassination of the dictator on the Ides of March 44 BC. Maridianus was one of four moneyers appointed for that year, the others being M. Mettius, L. Aemilius Buca, and P. Sepullius Macer. The obverse inscription includes the title Parens Patriae (Parent of his Country) which Crawford regards as posthumous. Veiled portraits of the dictator appear both before and after the Ides of March. The interesting reverse type shows the moneyer's name arranged in a cruciform pattern with his official titles placed in the angles. A A A F F is abbreviated from III VIR A A A F F quattuovir aere argento auro flando feriundo (one of four men for the casting and striking of bronze, silver, and gold). This was the first time that the full title of the moneyer's office had appeared on the coinage of the Roman Republic.

The Port of Ostia: seven ships within the harbor; pharos at top surmounted by statue of Neptune; reclining figure of Tiber below holding rudder and dolphin. RIC 513. Uniform deep olive-green patina with pleasing details. Very Fine/Fine.

The limitations of Rome's river harbor of Ostia had long been recognized: sandbars prevented larger ships from entering and goods had to be transferred to smaller craft. Seeking to rectify this and also to help solve Rome's constant problem with grain shortages, Claudius began the building of an artificial harbor in AD 42. Constructed in a semi-circle, the new harbor had two moles. As part of the building process, one of Caligula's pleasure galleys was scuttled and filled with cement. A lighthouse was erected above surmounted by a statue of Neptune (depicted on this coin's reverse). The Port was finished under Nero about four years or so before the striking of this Sestertius. Further expansion was done under Trajan and Hadrian. Because of unresolved silting, by the Fourth Century, the Port of Ostia fell into disuse.

After Nero was condemned to death on June 9th and took his own life, the Senate hailed Galba, who was in Spain, as emperor. This sestertius was struck while Galba and Otho were marching from Taraceo to Rome, after Galba's recognition as princeps by the Senate in June-August AD 68. A deputation of the Senate and praetorian guards met Galba in early July to confirm his imperial status. Galba arrived in Rome in October to begin his reign, which would prove to be barely three months before he was slaughtered by praetorian guards loyal to Otho on January 15, AD 69.

Alimenta Italiae: Trajan's great benevolence to Italy, which had suffered much in the civil wars, is well attested by contemporary coinage, monuments, tablets and writing. The emperor greatly aided the people of Italy with food, provisions in corn and other resources, and was a great benefactor to her children, as alluded to here on this Sestertius. In a panegyric written in AD 100, Pliny the Younger tells us: "there were very nearly 5,000 free-born children whom the liberality of our prince (say he), sought out and adopted. A reserve in case of war, and an ornament in peaceful times, they are nourished at the public cost, and learn to love their country, not only as their country only, but also as their nursing mother. From the ranks of these will our camps, our tribes be filled...".

The younger Faustina, wife of Marcus Aurelius, died in Cappadocia in AD 175. Despite her rumored infidelities, her memory was honored by the emperor, and she was immediately deified. This interesting sestertius type belongs to her posthumous coinage, which commenced in AD 176. The scepter resting against an empty throne is symbolic of the empress's passing, and the appearance of the peacock in the foreground equates her with Juno Regina (Queen Juno), consort of Jupiter.

Attractive olive-brown with reddish highlights. Bold depiction of Julianus. Very Fine.

Rome was thrown into chaos after the vile murder of Pertinax by the Praetorian guards on March 28, AD 193. Crazed by their greed and vulgar power, the Praetorians auctioned off the Purple. Bidding was locked between the city prefect, Flavius Sulpicianus, father-in-law of Pertinax, and the Milan-born plutocrat and senator Didius Julianus. Julianus won with a pledge of 25,000 Sestertii per Praetorian, and was hailed emperor by a cowering Senate. Infuriated, the Roman populace sent deputations to the frontier commanders to come and avenge Pertinax and put Rome right. Septimius Severus was the first to arrive. Seeking to save themselves, the Praetorians handed Julianus over. Pertinax was deified by the Senate, who condemned Julianus and raised Severus to emperor. On June 1 or 2, Didius Julianus was put to death like a common criminal.

Victoria (Victory) advancing left, holding wreath and palm frond. RIC 81f; RSC 76a. A fantastic example! Lovely golden highlights, superbly struck and of excellent metal quality for the type. Lustrous. Among the finest in existence. Nearly Mint State.

Scion of an equestrian family from Aquinum, between Rome and Pompeii, Gaius Pescennius Niger was the most legitimate candidate of the three frontier generals who answered Rome's plea to end the shameful tyranny of Didius Julianus and the praetorian guards. Alas his command was in Syria. The news did not reach Niger in time to reach Rome before Septimius Severus who easily marched from Pannonia and deposed Didius Julianus. Severus bought off the neutrality of the other general Clodius Albinus who was governor of Britain, with the empty title of Caesar, and declared Niger a public enemy. Niger consolidated his power in the East, but his nine legions were no match for the armies of Severus. After suffering a decisive defeat at Issus, Niger fled to his capital of Antioch, but was captured and executed by the Severan general Anullinus.

4496 Caracalla, AD 198-217. Gold Aureus (6.45g) minted at Rome, AD 217. Laureate, draped and cuirassed bust of Caracalla right. Reverse: VIC PART PM TRP XX COS III PP. Caracalla, in military garb, standing left, catching globe in hand and holding scepter; Victoria (Victory) standing behind, crowning him with one hand and holding palm frond in the other; small bound captive left at the emperor's feet. RIC 299a; Calicó 2840. Wonderful portrait, boldly struck with complete details. Underlying luster and nicely toned. Rare. Extremely Fine.

Seeing the Parthian royal household at odds as king Artabanus disputed the realm with his brother Vologases, Caracalla planned to attack Rome's eastern rival. He arrived at Antioch in AD 215 with eight legions. Caracalla, though, could not find any provocation to justify an invasion as the Parthians wisely did naught that could be interpreted as such. In AD 216, Caracalla asked to marry the daughter of king Artabanus, who rejected the offer. An inwardly seething Caracalla then invited the Parthian ruler and his household to discuss a "permanent peace" between Rome and the Parthians. The historian Herodian tells us that Caracalla's forces fell on the Parthians and massacred them, though Artabanus managed to escape. Still enraged, Caracalla crossed the Euphrates and invaded Media. Ravaging the countryside east of the Tigris, Caracalla returned to winter in Edessa in AD 216, where he had earlier imprisoned the king of the Osroëne, Abgar.

This coin commemorates this, rather inglorious, AD 216-217 Parthian campaign of Caracalla. Victory was certainly dubious at best. It was really a string of minor successes, and Caracalla would never get a chance for a true victory over the Parthians. On April 8, AD 217, while heading for Mesopotamia, Caracalla stopped to relieve himself by the side of the road near Carrhae. He was murdered by one of his soldiers. His body was cremated and his ashes sent to his mother, Julia Domna in Antioch.

Gold Aureus of Gordian III with the 'Farnese Hercules' Reverse

The reverse type of this coin is based on the Farnese Hercules discovered in 1546 during the excavation of the Baths of Caracalla. One of antiquity's most famous sculptures, the massive, marble statue made for the Baths is believed to be an enlarged copy of an early 3rd Century AD piece signed by one Glykon who used a 4th Century BC statue by Lysippos as his model. The excavation was commissioned by Pope Paul III (Alessandro Farnese) who sought classical sculptures to adorn his family's palace in Rome. And the Hercules statue would be one of his rewards, sitting for two hundred years in the Palazzo Farnese - hence its name, before it was moved to Naples in 1787, where it can be seen today at the Museo Archeologico Nazionale.

Remarkable Silver Denarius of Tranquillina, wife of Gordian III

Enlargement

4553 Tranquillina, wife of Gordian III. Silver Denarius (2.54g) minted at Rome, ca. AD 241-244. SABINIA TRANQ-VILLINA AVG. Drademed and draped bust of Tranquillina right. Reverse: CONCORDIA AVGG. Concordia (Concord) enthroned left, holding patera and double cornucopiae. RIC 252 (R4); RSC 1a. Tiny scratch on jawline. Light gray with soft iridescent highlights. A delightful example. Extremely Rare. Extremely Fine.

Given the prodigious number of coins minted by her husband and the tradition under the Antonines and Severans to strike ample coinage in the empress'name, the great rarity of Tranquillina's Imperial coinage is puzzling. Compounding this is the fact that Tranquillina's provincial coinage is not particularly scarce. Ancient Greek and Roman numismatic scholar David L. Vagi believes the answer may be found in the familial scenario of the imperial couple. In AD 241, the 16-year Gordian III appointed Tranquillina's father, Gaius Furius Sabinius Aquila Timesitheus, a man of sterling character and experience, commander of the praetorian guards. The ties were strengthened when Gordian then married Timesitheus'daughter. Thus Tranquillina's coinage may have been kept especially modest to prevent any appearance of a conflict of interest.

Marvelous Gold Aureus of Otacilia Severa, wife of Philip I

4563 Otacilia Severa, wife of Philip I. Gold Aureus (5.08g) minted at Rome, AD 244-246. Diademed and draped bust of Otacilia Severa right, her hair in intricate plaits. Reverse: Pudicitia (Modesty) seated left, raising veil with one hand and holding scepter in the other. RIC 123; Calicó 3268a. Extremely Rare. A marvelous example, well struck with full legends. Underlying luster with rose color toning rests within the devices. Extremely Fine.

We know little of Marcia Otacilia Severa. Her father may have been one Otacilius Severus, a governor of Pannonia. She married Marcus Julius Verus Philippus about a decade before he became emperor and gave birth to their only son, Philip Junior around AD 237. With Philip's accession to the purple in AD 244, Otacilia was given the title Augusta. She was later hailed as Mater Castrorum ("Mother of the Camps") and Mater Senatus et Patriae ("Mother of the Senate and the Country"). It is likely that she was executed by the praetorian guards after Philip's defeat near Verona by Trajan Decius.

After Constantine I died in May, AD 337, his three sons, Constantine II, Constantius II and Constans, unwilling to share their inheritance, engineered the murder of their half-cousins Delmatius and Hannibalianus. The youngest brothers benefited greatly from the dark deed, absorbing large territories; Constans ruling from Rome in the west and Constantius II operating from Antioch in the east. The eldest, Constantine II, though, was much displeased for he saw little of the spoils.

His demands for Italy and North Africa were rejected by Constans, who entered into an alliance with his middle brother. As that alliance grew stronger, Constantine II grew more alarmed. In the spring of AD 340, he invaded Italy, but was killed in an ambush outside of Aquileia. This medallion was struck to commemorate that event. The reverse type and legend: Victoriae Dominorum Nostrorum Augustorum - "For the Victory of the Commanders, our Emperors" may reflect the new political landscape, an empire now ruled by just two emperors, Constans in Europe and Constantius II in Asia. Alternatively, the medallion may be tied to Constans'successful campaign against the Franks in AD 341-342 or his visit to Britain in 342 or early 343 for what was likely a military emergency. These medallions would have been distributed at fêtes, public and private, or spectator games. (But after AD 384, medallions of this weight would no longer be struck. Theodosius I and Valentinian II forbade those who gave public games from distributing pieces which weighed over 1.60 pound [Mommsen, Mon. Rom. volume. III, p.73].)

Of the three sons of Constantine the Great and Fausta, Constans was the youngest and perhaps the worst. Contemporary historians paint a picture of an avaricious, cruel and much depraved man. The fault though that would ultimately prove his undoing was the contempt he showed his own soldiers and his favoritism toward his barbarian bodyguard. On January 12, AD 350, Constans was deposed by his field commander Magnentius at Augustodunum (Autun in central Gaul). Constans fled toward Spain and was slain near the Pyrenees.

RIC 297 (R4); Cohen 72. Faint hairlines from an old cleaning. Extremely Rare, particularly this officina which is unrecorded in a collection location in RIC. Boldly struck and exceptional with all details sharp and crisp. Extremely Fine.

Of Constantine's progeny, Constantius II survived the longest. He would know little peace, though, for his long reign was a litany of rebellion, religious strife, fratricidal warfare and invasions from the East, West and North. In the realm of religion, Constantius, a supporter of Arianism, was at loggerheads with his brother Constans, a devout Orthodox Catholic. In the temporal plain, operating largely from his base in Antioch, Constantius was in the field more often than not, whether battling the Sassanians, the Alemani, Magnentius, or Silvanus.

In April or May AD 357, he paid a rare visit to Rome to celebrate his 35th anniversary in power (even though he became Caesar in AD 324). The fourth century Roman historian Ammianus Marcellinus records in great detail the pomp and pageantry of Constantius'triumphal entry into the Eternal City. It is clear from the depiction of Constantius and the legends that the solidus here was minted in honor of the emperor's anniversary. Many scholars believe that Constantius'visit to Rome also signaled reconciliation between the Christian emperor and the pagan aristocracy of Rome. The reverse types with Constantinopolis looking benignly over to Roma, and even the palm in the mint signature could be construed to be symbolic of that. It is more likely, though, that the reverse theme is a reflection of the unity and tranquility throughout the vast empire for which Constantius most certainly wished.

Carthage Mint Gold Solidus of Constantine IV Pogonatus, 668-685

Enlargement

4670 Constantine IV, Pogonatus, 668-685. Gold Solidus (4.3g) minted at Carthage, 675/676. Very scarce. Helmeted, draped and cuirassed facing bust of Constantine IV, holding spear across his shoulder and shield. Reverse: Cross potent on three steps flanked by standing figures of Heraclius and Tiberius; OBN below steps. D.O. 43a.1 var. As usually for these Carthaginian issues, struck partially off-center. Nearly Mint State.

Constantine IV (668-685) may be regarded as the savior of European civilization by virtue of his defense of Constantinople against the seemingly relentless tide of Muslim expansion. The Arabs, under the leadership of the powerful Umayyad Caliph Muawija I, besieged the Byzantine capital over a period of four years (674-678) until they were eventually repulsed with heavy losses. In the earlier part of his reign, Constantine IV shared the throne with his younger brothers Heraclius and Tiberius, but in 681 he deposed them and ruled alone until his death four years later.

This rare solidus, issued ca. 675/676, exhibits the characteristics of the north African mint of Carthage, which was destined to be lost to the Arabs before the end of the century. The two co-emperors appear on the reverse and, as is frequently the case with the later products of this mint, the Latin inscriptions are hopelessly blundered.

5450 China. Order of Freedom and Independence Medal (3rd Level). In February 12th, 1955, Chairman Mao signed a Presidential decree for issuing Orders to award military officers who served in the army during the Anti-Japanese War (1937-1945, namely World War II in Asian battlefield). The order was named "Order of Freedom and Independence" after the discussion in the seventh meeting of the first session of the National People's Congress Standing Committee. The 3rd level of Order of Freedom and Independence was issued to military officers ranked from company level to battalion level.

The Order of Freedom and Independence was said to be the most "serious" orders in the history of People's Republic of China (since 1949), which means each officer who was issued this order was archived with a unique number of the reverse of the medal. Therefore, the Chinese government has a regulation that this order cannot be sold in large public auctions. So it's really hard to find auction archives for this order, and people also this order will be much more valuable once the government cancelled the regulation. In original green box. Rare. Extremely Fine To Uncirculated.

Very Rare 1881 Hawaiian Pattern Five Cents

Enlargement

5726 Hawaii. Pattern 5 Cents, 1881. Medcalf-Russel 2CN-1; KM-2 (mintage 200). Nickel. Original. Obverse: King Kalakaua I facing left. The obverse legend contains an unintentionally insulting blunder, referring to Kalakaua as the KING OF SANDWICH ISLANDS instead of Hawaii. Reverse: Crown state motto with value (5) in center. Lightly toned. Pop 2; 2 in MS-66. PCGS graded MS-65 CAC Approved.

1881 Hawaiian Pattern Five Cents

Enlargement

5727 Hawaii. Pattern Five Cents, 1881. Medcalf-Russel 2CN-1. Obverse: King Kalakaua I facing left. The obverse legend contains an unintentionally insulting blunder, referring to Kalakaua as the KING OF SANDWICH ISLANDS instead of Hawaii. The Sandwich Islands was the European name for Hawaii and so-named for the British Earls of Sandwich. Sandwich Islands was the name given to the Hawaiian Islands by James Cook in the 1770's, which explains the origin of the now archaic usage. Reverse: Crown state motto with value (5) in center. The State motto on the reverse AU MAU KE EA O KA AINA I KA PONO has the letters accidentally reversed on the first word, which should be "UA". In all, 200 1881 patterns were struck. Few were acquired by numismatists, hence their rarity in choice to gem condition. According to Medcalf, "many of the coins became picket pieces or were fashioned into jewelry." An exemplary coin, it still exhibits beaming luster under medium golden-gray toning on both sides. Pop 6; 1 in 64+; 2 in 65 and 2 in 66. PCGS graded MS-64 CAC Approved..
